

Inspirational Speaker
JANET DENISON is an author, speaker, and noted Bible study teacher. She and her husband, Dr. Jim Denison, are co-founders of the international ministry, Center for Informed Faith, based in Dallas, Texas. Her book, Content To Be Good, Called To Be Godly, was published in 2008 by Tyndale House Publishers.

Janet's ministry has spanned across 25 years, serving in churches alongside her husband in Texas and Atlanta Georgia. She is best known for her inter-denominational Bible studies, in which she used humor and life experiences to illustrate biblical truths. She is a keynote speaker for women's conferences, retreats, seminars, and church programs.

Through the Center for Informed Faith, Janet and her husband have been able to expand their ministries through the internet. Their goal is to provide resources for ministry and lay leaders throughout the world.

Janet and her husband live in Dallas and have two sons, Ryan, a seminary student, and Craig, a ministry student at Dallas Baptist University.

Worship Leaders
THE SEALE

SISTERS, Hannah (25), Elisabeth (22), Deborah (18), and Abigail (16) have been singing together as a group since 2001. They have traveled to churches, parties, social events, and rest homes around Texas to sing. Their songs are uplifting and their hearts and testimonies are focused in praise to their Savior.

The prayer on the Seale Sisters' heart is that through the gifts the Lord has blessed them with, other lives will be also blessed and that they would see Christ in them and through them. They live in Winchester, Texas with their parents where they have worked on the Seale's family-centered ministry at Camp Winchester.
